

VISTULA

Product Information & Data Sheet

Vistula is fieldledge style natural thin cut limestone with a tumbled finish. The stone showcases a blend of the different faces and shapes of premium Wisconsin limestone. Vistula has a subtle color range with shades of gray and gold. The tumbling process adds character and undeniable beauty to the natural limestone. The fieldledge style has an old-world appearance. The mix of linear and irregular pieces is reminiscent of centuries-old European villages. Tumbling the limestone further compliments the historic look of Vistula making it a popular option for historic building renovations.
